Greene County Ohio Historical Society

An Historical Society is Formed

The Greene County Historical Society provides opportunities for people to “connect” with the past to discover something about their own history and where they live. We help people learn about their own connection with the community as well as its historic roots, and how the past played a role in who they are today. We accomplish this through education, preservation, research, experiences, and entertainment.

How it began

Established in 1929, the historical society was founded by community members eager to preserve Greene County's fading heritage. About 100 Greene County residents met at the Greene County District Library with Dr William Albert Galloway presiding over the meeting. He spoke briefly of highlights in Greene County history, and of the danger of losing such a wealth of personal and general history unless it were collected by organized effort.

The first officers of the Greene County Historical Society were: Dr. W. A. Galloway, President; Prof. H. C. Aultman, Vice President; Miss Florence Swan, Secretary; and Mr. George Dodds, Treasurer.

King house donated

Miss Emma King donated a house and lot at the corner of Second and Monroe Streets in Xenia to the county for a museum. In response to this generosity, the Greene County Museum Association was organized, and the house was remodeled and fireproofed by the Works Progress Administration (WPA). The County Commissioners agreed to fund the museum's operating expenses in 1935.

The original Museum Association officers were: Dr. Benjamin R. McClellan as President, as well as Fred Anderson, C. R. Titlow, R. O. Wead, Katherine Shorey, and Mrs. Wilson Galloway.

As part of the restoration work after the tornado, the Historical Society came to an agreement with the city of Xenia to trade a portion of their property for the Queen Anne Victorian house at the corner of Detroit and Church Street. This house, now known as the Trebein-Flynn Victorian, was relocated to the corner of Church and King, placing it next to the log house where it remains to this day.

Today all 3 buildings have become an essential part of the Greene County Historical Society and the history of the area.
